

APSS – Planning for online classes

WEEK 1 and 2 (18-31 March)

1. Learning objectives for general classes

- Developing listening strategies for semantic markers and note-taking
- Listening practice based on technical content: applying listening strategies for comprehension
- Listening and speaking practice on technical topics: comprehension and debate

2. Activities, materials, method and assessment

General classes
Activities	Materials	Learning objectives	Method and feedback	Assessment<sup>1</sup>
Activity 1	Workbook. Module 2. Listening 5 (video). Watching a video, taking notes and summarizing. History of the Internet	Listening strategies for semantic markers and note-taking	Answer Key / self-correcting + submission	Self-assessment and teacher's assessment
Activity 2	Workbook. Module 2. Listening 6 (video). Challenges of the Internet and Beyond. Video	Applying listening strategies for comprehension. Comprehension and debate	Answer Key/self-correcting + submission	Self-assessment and teacher's assessment
Activity 3	Workbook. Module 2. Listening 7 (video). Launching New Product and Applications	Applying listening strategies for comprehension. Comprehension and debate	Answer Key/self-correcting + submission	Self-assessment and teacher's assessment
Activity 4	Workbook. Module 2. Listening 8 (video). Computer Security and Computer Crime	Applying listening strategies for comprehension. Comprehension and debate	Answer Key/self-correcting + submission	Self-assessment and teacher's assessment

---

<sup>1</sup> Self-assessment refers to a short report you will submit, where you will reflect on all the work done and your progress. You will be given specific instructions for that.